

Please note that the Haute Route 2017 organizers will not allow transfer of entry to the following year, to another event OR to another rider.

We STRONGLY advise each rider to procure his or her own individual cancellation insurance.

There will be no refunds from the organization.

SUGGESTIONS TO PROCURE YOUR OWN CANCELLATION INSURANCE

Please find below a non-exhaustive list of insurance providers offering cancellation insurance for your Haute Route registration.

Our selection is based on your country of residence.

All the insurance options listed below will include various options in their packages.

You can directly contact the insurance provider after registering with us to receive a quote.

Reminder, the following insurance companies are only suggestions, we do not deal directly with them, any insurance issues will have to be dealt with directly with them.
